Big graphics are cost-effective, easy – and changeable!

Packs small, sets up easy

One banner stand unit packs neatly in a lightweight protective case. The frame pole sections are shockcorded for easy assembly.

You'll be exhibiting in seconds

The graphic panel is housed within the banner stand base. Simply raise the spring-loaded graphic panel and attach to the frame pole.

Versatile enough to use anywhere

Banner stands are a nice addition to trade show displays and are great for lobbies, special events, retail applications, and anywhere else you need an eye-catching and durable graphic.

New! Easy to change graphics!

Our connector system allows you to change your graphics quickly and easily. It's a cost-effective way to update your look or to change graphics to better fit specific audiences.

Multiple units

Multiple banner stands are a great way to support your national programs. Your dealers or affiliates get a great looking graphic and you get a consistent look nationwide. We can also carry your look and message through to Skyline tabletop, backwall and island exhibits as well.

More options

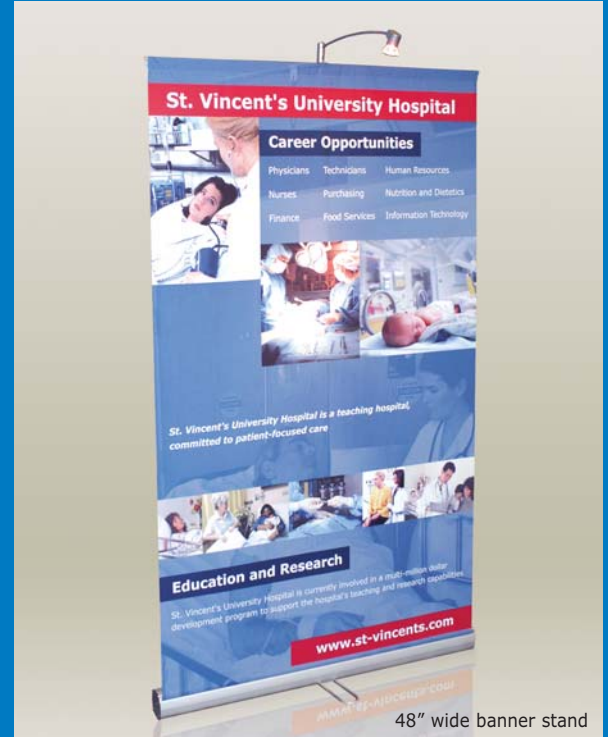

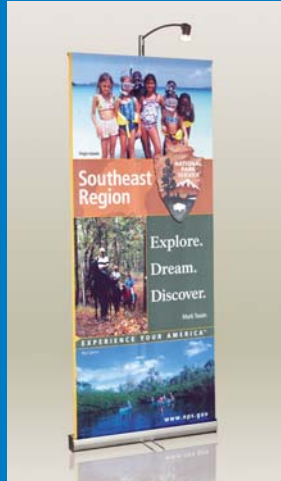

Skyline Banner Stand 3000-R gives you more options! Our standard 34" stand is available with double-sided graphics, which is perfect for stand-alone kiosks. Our wider 48" stand gives you a bigger graphic and can be designed for use as a tabletop display – giving you two displays in one!
